

Guided/Independent Practice: Appositives

- A. Underline the appositives in the following sentences.
- B. Identify whether the appositives are non-restrictive (non-essential) or restrictive (essential.)
- C. Provide punctuation when needed.

1. The headline Gold in Alaska spanned the width of the entire page.

2. The younger man sporting a Buffalo Bill goatee was swilling whiskey from the bottle and reciting, endlessly, the popular jingle about a purple cow.

3. Jason's brother Ethan was known for his hearty laugh.

4. Goodman another partner was pointing south toward the end of the pier.

5. As he approached Lake Bennett a bright turquoise jewel his heart was racing.

6. The southerner Smith is the boss of Skagway.

7. The endless line of Klondikers ascended the last steep pitch the Golden Stairs.

8. Jack's skiff the twenty-seven-foot Yukon Belle was fully framed and now the lumber was going on-soft green spruce boards an inch thick.

Appendix #12c