

Introductory Phrases Practice--Student

Using your knowledge of introductory phrases, revise the sentences provided.

Example: They saw the chaos of ice resume its inexorable march downriver, shearing and grinding and making a thunder.

Answer: From the knoll above the cabin, they saw the chaos of ice resume its inexorable march downriver, shearing and grinding and making a thunder.

- 1 Tall cottonwood trees were snapping off like matchsticks.

- 2 Each of them had chipped a hollow in his half of the log.

- 3 Thirty thousand stampedeers were expecting breakup at any moment.

- 4 The superintendent spoke to the throng huddled at the entrance of the canyon.

- 5 Only several hundred arrived before Jason Hawthorn and Charlie Maguire.

- 6 I left Seattle only three days after you did.

- 7 In the log cabin his brothers had built on a high back street, the June sunset was still blazing and his brothers were still asking about the Chilkoot and the winter.

- 8 A man shoveled twenty thousand dollars out of his claim in twelve hours.

Appendix #19c